

Importation of Goods into the United States

Subscribers importing goods into the United States from another country, either by selling or buying items listed on AgriWorld Exchange, are responsible for ensuring that the importation of that type of product complies with applicable U.S. laws. These laws often are complex, and issues will vary depending upon exactly what commodity is involved and the countries in which the buyer and seller reside.

Violations of this policy may result in a range of actions, including:

- Listing cancellation
- Limits on account privileges
- Account suspension
- Forfeit of AgriWorld Exchange fees on cancelled listings
